Home Sweet Home-Grand Haven, MI

1:00 p.m. Saturday, October 20 West

1. This is my home in Grand Haven not too far from the Grand Haven beach (Relative Location)

Quick Shop

2:00 p.m. Friday, October 19 East

2. My local grocery store in Grand Haven that I often run into to get an item or two. It's never busy because it is hidden behind trees, and it is directly across the street from Meijer. (Movement of Goods)

Work Place

2:30 p.m. Friday, October 19 East

3. I work at the Salvation Army at 310 N. Despelder, directly behind the local Wendy's. I work in the food pantry with lovely people. Behind the building is a community garden and community playground. (Absolute Location)

A Place to Study

3:00 p.m. Friday, October 19 North

4. The Loutit District Library at 407 Columbus Avenue in Grand Haven is a good quiet place to study. I go there to find books for teaching and to get some homework done. (Absolute Location)

A Walk in the Park

3:30 p.m. Friday, October 19 North

5. The central park in Grand Haven is a common place to take a walk and play with pets and kids near the local fountain. I enjoy walking through there on a warm day when visiting the local shops. (Human and Physical Characteristics of Place; Human/Environment Interaction)

A Place of Learning

12:00 p.m. Monday, October 15 Southeast

6. This is the main entrance to Grand Valley State University off of Lake Michigan Dr. I currently attend Grand Valley where I am studying to be a teacher. (Absolute Location; Human/Environment Interaction)

Good Food, Good Friends

4:00p.m. Friday, October 19 West

7. My favorite place to eat out is at Panera Bread on the West side of US 31. I visit my friends there to chat about our lives and have a good meal. (Relative Location)

Beach Sunset

7:00p.m. Saturday, October 20 West

8. The Grand Haven beach is a popular tourist location during the summer. I like to go in the spring and fall to walk the pier and watch the sunset. (Lake Michigan Region; Human/Environment Interaction; Place)

Ludington, MI

2:00 p.m. Sunday, July 1 North

9. Ludington is one of my family's favorite places to visit. We walk to the Big Sable lighthouse and climb to the top to overlook Lake Michigan. (Lake Michigan Region; Place; Human/Environment Interaction)

12:00 p.m. Monday, July 2 Northeast

10. The House of Flavors at 402 W Ludington Ave in Ludington is my favorite place to stop and get an ice cream treat. We stop there every time we visit the area. (Absolute Location)

*Some of these pictures did come from Google Images (the Grand Valley arch and the House of Flavors) because my pictures didn't turn out
